BLESSED

When we think of the word "Beatitude" we think of today's discourse from Luke's Gospel, or the more familiar one from Matthew (which begins "Blessed are the poor in spirit..."). Actually, beatitudes occur throughout the prophets and Gospels. Today in Jeremiah (with an echo in the psalm) we hear, "Blessed is the one who trusts in the Lord" (Jeremiah 17:7). Following his resurrection in John's Gospel, Christ proclaims, "Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed" (John 20:29). The evangelists placed these sayings throughout the Gospels as short reminders about the characteristics that one will find in a follower of Christ, characteristics that will help spread the Good News in this life and lead to eternal blessings in the next. In Latin, the saints are called the Beati, the "Blessed," for they are the ones who lived the "blessed" life as described by Jesus throughout the Gospels. How blest are we, when we also strive to make our own days a living beatitude!

Stewardship Reflection...

"I have now brought you the first fruits of the products of the soil which you, O Lord, have given to me." (Deuteronomy 26:10)
This simple line from the Old Testament presents us with two challenges. First, do we bring God our first fruits – the best that we have to offer? Regarding our gifts of time, talent and treasure, do we give God our "first fruits" or what is leftover? Second, do we remember that everything we have has been given to us by God? We brought nothing into this world and we can take nothing from it. So why not share what we have while we are here?

Sacramental

Baptism... Parents must be registered members at one of our parishes. Preparation class is mandatory.

Scheduled Baptism Dates:
St. Benedict, Our Lady of Mercy and St. Joseph: 1st Sunday of the month.

First Communion & Confirmation...

These sacraments will take place according to church calendar. Please check the bulletin for notices on preparation, registration and set dates. If your child does not attend a catholic school, please notify the parish. Preparation is mandatory.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (R.C.I.A.)...

Classes are set from September to Pentecost. For more information or to register please call the parish office.

Marriage...

About 1 year advance notice is appreciated. One of the applicants being married must be a member of one of our cluster parishes. Please contact the parish office to fill out a marriage registration form. Marriage Prep Course is mandatory.

Care & Anointing of the Sick...

Holy Communion is brought regularly to parishioners that are homebound, in nursing homes, and hospitals. Please notify the parish office if you know of someone that is in need of receiving holy communion.

For the Anointing of the Sick please contact the parish office.

Note: In order to receive sacraments when in hospital or continuous care facilities, please inform the facility's administration of your Catholic faith.

Funeral... After your initial contact with the funeral home, please contact the parish office for mass preparation. (Pre-planning is encouraged.)

Sarnia Beginning Experience

Sarnia Beginning Experience Spring Support Group weekend for divorced, separated and widowed persons is April 12-14, 2019. One weekend. A life time of change.

Today's Readings ...

- First Reading (Jeremiah 17:5-8)
- Second Reading (1 Corinthians 15:12, 16-20)
- Gospel (Luke 6:17, 20-26)

God of our life, there are days when the burdens we carry chafe our shoulders and weigh us down; when the road seems dreary and endless, the skies gray and threatening; when our lives have no music in them, and our hearts are lonely, and our souls have lost their courage. Flood the path with light, run our eyes to where the skies are full of promise; tune our hearts to brave music; give us the sense of comradeship with heroes and saints of every age; and so quicken our spirits that we may be able to encourage the souls of all who journey with us on the road of life, to your honor and glory.

St. Augustine.

Dear Parishioners, the last few weeks have been a difficult time for all of us regarding Fr. Steve's leave of absence. We are keeping Father in our prayers as he journeys to find where God is calling him in his ministry to serve the Church and Her people.

Yes, we have lost our Pastor and we need time to grieve. As parishioners and Pastoral Team we need to express our sadden feelings and sudden emptiness. We are one Parish Family in the need of love, prayer, understanding, and support in and with each other. With Jesus in our hearts and prayers on our lips, there is nothing we should be afraid of.

We understand that there are more questions than answers, but we cannot be driven by speculations or gossip. Unnecessary discussions lead to misinformation and judgemental actions. There is a fine line between loving care and gossip. As we read in Mark's Gospel (Mk 7:14) "Listen to me all of you and understand; there is nothing outside a person that by going in can defile, but the things that come out are what defile."

As you can see, the London Diocese and our Sarnia Deanery Priests have stepped in to help us with the mass coverage. We are very grateful for their commitment and prayers. Please be patient as there may be a few hiccups along the way.

We thank you for your continued prayers and support of our Parish Family. If you have a need or wish to speak with the Pastoral Team (Leonia, Deacon Lyle and myself), please do not hesitate. God bless, Fr. Matthew Sobierajski CSMA

Come and See Discernment March 1-3 at St. Peter's Seminary - St. Peter's Seminary invites you to a discernment retreat for men 17-45 years old considering a call to the priesthood. This weekend offers a firsthand experience at the life of a seminarian, spiritual helps for discernment and an opportunity to meet current seminarians and faculty. Contact Fr. Patrick Bénéteau at vocations@dol.ca, or 519-432-1824 ext. 204, for more information or to register. Visit www.dol.ca/news to view the event postcard.

Quo Vadis – Vocation Discernment Groups for Catholic Men - Quo Vadis is Latin for "where are you going?" Is Jesus calling me to be a Catholic priest? It's not an easy question to answer. It takes prayer and study to discover your true vocation. Quo Vadis is a discernment group of men, ages 18 to 35, who love Jesus Christ and His Church, and who are willing to talk with other like-minded men about their future. The group meetings aren't meant to convince you that priesthood is your vocation. You could very well be called to marriage or to another vocation, but openness to God's will is the goal of these groups. Contact Fr. Patrick Bénéteau at vocations@dol.ca or 519-432-1824 ext. 204, for meeting times and locations.

Youth Ministry Certification - Registrations are now being accepted for the Youth Ministry Certificate program, an on-line program in partnership with the Catechetical Institute at the Franciscan University of Steubenville to provide for the training of those with an interest Youth Ministry. This program will now be the expected standard for those who desire to work as a Coordinator of Youth Ministry in the Diocese of London. More information is available at www.dol.ca/ymcertification.

Assumption University Learn for Life Series - No papers, no exams... just Learn for Life! Assumption University, Windsor, invites you to register for Learn For Life 2019 Winter/Spring courses at www.assumptionu/learnforlife. Upcoming offerings include "The Church and the International Order," "Laudato Si," and "Religion and Politics."

Veritas Lecture Series - King's and the Centre for Jewish, Christian, Muslim Learning invite you to join them at their next Veritas Lecture on Thursday, Feb. 28 at 7:30 pm. Dr. Murray Watson will present "Rediscovering Our Lost Family: Highlights and Lowlights in Contemporary Jewish-Catholic-Muslim Dialogue" in the Joanne & Peter Kenny Theatre at the Darryl J. King Student Life Centre at King's University College, 266 Epworth Avenue, London. Parking is free and admission is by freewill donation. Facilities are wheelchair accessible; for accommodation requests, visit kings.uwo.ca/accommodation.

King's Open House - King's University College will be hosting an open house for future students, friends, family and alumni on Saturday, March 9 from noon until 4 pm. All are welcome. Attend program Ted Talks, tour campus and residence, and meet professors and current students to learn about programs for Fall 2019. For more information visit <https://www.kings.uwo.ca/about-kings/media-and-communications/newsroom/kings-open-house-coming-march-9/>
